Relative Explanatory Statement pursuant to the provisions of section 102 of The Companies Act, 2013:Item No. 1 & 2: To consider and approve increase in authorized share capital of the Company & To consider and approve the amendment of share capital clause of Memorandum of Association (MOA) of the Company:

Since the Company is expanding its business activities, Company is in need of additional funds, and in order to augment the same, the Company is proposing to seek the members' consent for an increase in its authorized share capital from as much amount as set out in the notice convening the general meeting of the Company.

The alteration in the Capital Clause of the Memorandum of Association is consequential. Pursuant to the provision of Section 13 (1) of the Companies Act, 2013, a company can alter its Memorandum of Association by passing the Ordinary Resolution at the general meeting of the company. Articles of Association are not required to be altered. The Board recommends passing of the necessary resolution set forth in the notice convening this General Meeting.

The current authorized capital is not sufficient to accommodate the new issue of shares by the Company. In view of the same, the Authorized share capital of the Company is required to be increased from Rs. 2,00,000/- (Rupees Two Lakh Only) consisting of 20,000 (Twenty Thousand) Equity shares of Rs. 10/- (Rupees Ten Only) each to Rs. 2,50,000/- (Rupees Two Lakh Fifty Thousand Only) divided into 20,000 (Twenty Thousand) Equity shares of Rs. 10/ (Rupees Ten Only) each and 5,000 (Five Thousand) Series Seed Compulsorily Convertible Preference Shares of Rs. 10/- (Rupees Ten Only) each by the addition of Rs. 50,000/- (Rupees Fifty Thousand Only) divided into 5,000 (Five Thousand) Series Seed Compulsorily Convertible Preference Shares of Rs. 10/- (Rupees Ten Only) each ranking pari-passu with the existing share of the Company.

Accordingly, consent of the shareholders is being sought in terms of Section 61 of the Companies Act, 2013.

All the Directors and Key Managerial Personnel and their relatives are deemed to be interested to the extent of their shareholding, if any, in the resolution.

The Board of Directors recommends the resolution as set out at Item No. 1 & 2 for approval of the members as an Ordinary resolution.

Relative Explanatory Statement pursuant to the provisions of section 102 of The Companies Act, 2013:Item No. 3 & 4: To Consider and Approve the Adoption and Implementation of Employee Stock Option Plan 2026 & To consider and approve grant of options to identified employees equal to or exceeding one percent of the issued capital of the Company during any one year:*Blunav System Employee Stock Option Plan 2026

The Company has always believed in rewarding its employee for their continuous hard work, dedication and support, which has led the company on a growth path. To enable more and more employees to enjoy the fruits of the phenomenal growth that the company has witnessed in the recent past, it is proposed to implement an ESOP Scheme. The main objective of the scheme is to give employees, who are performing well, a certain minimum opportunity to gain from the Company's performance thereby acting as a retention tool and to attract best talent available in the market. Stock Options have long been recognized internationally, as an effective instrument, to align the interest of employees with those of the company and its shareholders, providing an opportunity to employees to share the growth of the company, and to create long term wealth in the hands of employees. Stock Options create a sense of ownership between the company and its employees, paving the way for a unified approach to the common objective of enhancing overall shareholder value.

The Board therefore proposed to evolve an Employee Stock Option Scheme (hereinafter referred to as "Blunav System Employee Stock Option Plan 2026") for the benefit of permanent Employees and Directors of the Company.

The explanatory statement sets out the various disclosures as required by rule 12 of the Companies (Share Capital and Debentures) Rules, 2014 of (hereinafter referred to as "the Rules"):

A. Total number of stock options to be granted

- (i) The total number of options to be granted under this scheme shall initially not exceed 1248 Options.
- (ii) The Board may with the approval of the shareholders increase the maximum number of options under the Blunav System Employee Stock Option Plan 2026 at any time.
- (iii) One option entitles the holder of the options to apply for one equity share of the company.

B. Identification of classes of employees entitled to participate in the ESOP

- (i) a permanent employee of the Company working in India or out of India; or
- (ii) a director of the Company, whether a whole-time director or not but excluding an independent director; or
- (iii) an employee, as defined in sub-clauses (i) or (ii) in this clause, of a subsidiary, in India or out of India, or of a holding company of the Company, but excludes:
 - (a) a director who either by himself or through his relatives or through any corporate, directly or indirectly holds more than 10% (ten percent) of the paid-up equity Shares of the Company;

(b) an employee who is a promoter or a person belonging to the promoter group; C. The appraisal process for determining the eligibility of employees to the Employees Stock Option Scheme;

(i) The company has a formal performance appraisal system established wherein the performance of the employees is assessed each year on the basis of various functional and managerial parameters. The appraisal process is revised at regular intervals.

(ii) Employees and Directors would be granted Stock Options based on performance-linked parameters such as work performance, technical knowledge, period of service, designation and such other parameters as may be decided by the Board/ESOP Compensation Committee, if any from time to time.

(iii) The Board/ESOP Compensation Committee, if any may at its discretion extend the benefits of the Blunav System Employee Stock Option Plan 2026 to a new entrant or any existing employee on such other basis as it may deem fit.

D. The requirements of vesting and period of vesting:

- The Options granted under the Plan shall not Vest until the expiry of 1 (one) year from the Grant Date of such Options.
- Vesting of Options shall be subject to continued employment of the Employee with the Company and shall be on the basis of performance achieved by the Company and/or by the Employees. Thus, the criteria for Vesting of the Options would be based on performance, as may be decided by the Administrator at its sole discretion.
- The specific conditions subject to which Vesting would take place shall be outlined in the Grant Letter received by the respective Employee(s).

E. The maximum period within which the options shall be vested:

Unless otherwise decided by the Administrator (which shall not be detrimental to the interest of the Option Grantee) or specified in the Grant Letter, the Options Granted would Vest over a period of 4 (Four) years in the following manner:

- 25% (twenty five percent) of the Options shall vest on expiry of 1 (one) year from the Grant Date, subject to continued employment of the Employee with the Company, except as provided under Clause 9.1 of the Policy; and
- The remaining 75% (seventy five percent) of the Options shall vest in equal instalments on a quarterly basis over a period of 3 (three) years after expiry of 1 (one) year from the Grant Date, subject to continued employment of the Employee with the Company, except as provided under Clause 9.1 of the Policy.

F. The exercise price or the formula for arriving at the same

As may be determined by the Administrator provided, however, that the Exercise Price shall not be less than the face value of the Shares of the Company.

G. Exercise Period and the Process of Exercise

- Subject to Clause 9.2 of the Policy, the Vested Options may be Exercised by an Option Grantee, upon the occurrence of any of the following events (collectively referred to as “Exercise Events”):
 - Liquidation Event;
 - Listing of the Shares of the Company on a recognised stock exchange in India; and
 - Such other events as may be decided by the Company.
- The Option Grantee shall Exercise his Vested Options by delivering a notice of Exercise in writing (“Exercise Notice”) within 30 (thirty) days, or such other period as may be decided by the Administrator, from the date of notice sent by the Company to the Option Grantees, intimating the occurrence of Exercise Event. The Exercise Notice shall be in the form and be delivered in the manner as set out in the policy, to the corporate office of the Company or at such other place as the Company or the Administrator may prescribe. The Option Grantee shall make payment of the Exercise Price by (i) a cheque, or (ii) a demand draft drawn in favour of the Company, or (iii) transfer of funds to the specified bank account of the Company, or (iv) other form of payment acceptable to the Company, for exercising the Vested Options in such Option Grantee.
- Upon receipt of the Exercise Notice, the Company shall, subject to the terms of the Plan and the Grant Letter, issue and allot the Exercised Shares to the Option Grantee. It is clarified that no person other than the Employee to whom the Option is granted shall be entitled to exercise the Options, except in the event of death of the Option Grantee as provided under Clause 9.3.1 of the policy.
- The Employee shall not have a right to receive any dividend or to vote or in any manner enjoy the rights and benefits of a Shareholder (including rights to receive bonus or rights shares) in respect of Options granted, until Shares underlying such Options are issued on Exercise of such Options.

H. the Lock-in period, if any: NILI. the Maximum number of options to be granted per employee and in aggregate:

- (i) The specific Employees to whom the Options would be granted, and their eligibility criteria shall be determined by the Board.
- (ii) The Board shall in accordance with this Plan and Applicable Laws determine the limits on the maximum number of Options that could be granted to a single Employee, including the maximum Grant in a specified period.

J. The method which the company shall use to value its options;

The Company shall use the fair value method for valuation of the options Clause 6 of the ESOP guidelines requires that any ESOP Scheme for offering stock options to the employees of the Company must be approved by the shareholders by way of a Special Resolution.

K. The conditions under which option vested in employees may lapse e.g. in case of termination of employment for misconduct: As may be decided by the Board

L. The specified time period within which the employee shall exercise the vested options in the event of a proposed termination of employment or resignation of employee:

- In the following events the process of Exercise of Options shall be:

1. Exercise in case of death of an Option Grantee: In the event that the employment of an Option Grantee is terminated as a result of his death, then all Options granted to such an Option Grantee till such date shall stand Vested and may be exercised by the Option Grantee's nominee or legal heirs, upon the occurrence of an Exercise Event. On occurrence of an Exercise Event payment may be made of the aggregate Exercise Price in full by the nominee(s) or legal heir(s) of an Option Grantee along with providing Exercise Notice to the Company.
2. Exercise in case of Permanent Incapacity: In the event of Permanent Incapacity of an Option Grantee while in employment, all Options granted to such an Option Grantee as on the date of Permanent Incapacity shall stand Vested in him/her on that day and the Option Grantee may exercise such Options upon the occurrence of an Exercise Event by paying the aggregate Exercise Price in full along with providing Exercise Notice to the Company.
3. Exercise in case of retirement: In the event of separation of an Option Grantee from his/her employment with the Company, for reasons of normal retirement or a retirement specifically approved by the Company, unless otherwise determined by the Administrator, all Vested Options shall be exercised by the Option Grantee upon the occurrence of an Exercise Event, by paying the aggregate Exercise Price in full along with providing Exercise Notice to the Company. Unless otherwise determined by the Administrator, all Unvested Options on the date of retirement shall stand cancelled with effect from such date.
4. Exercise in case of separation due to resignation: In the event of separation of an Option Grantee from his/her employment due to resignation prior to retirement, for any reason other than as mentioned in Clauses 9.3.5 and 9.3.6 below, all Unvested Options on the date of resignation from the employment, shall stand cancelled with effect from that date. However, all Vested Options as on the date of resignation, shall be exercised upon the occurrence of an Exercise Event.
5. Exercise in case of abandonment of employment by the employee without the employer's consent: In the event of abandonment of employment by an Option Grantee without the Company's written consent, all Options (Vested and Unvested) granted to such Employee which have not been Exercised at the time of abandonment of employment, shall stand cancelled. The Administrator shall decide the date of cancellation of such Options and such decision shall be binding on the Option Grantee. In case, Vested Options cannot be cancelled in accordance with Applicable Law, the Administrator shall undertake such actions as may be specified by the Board. Further, subject to approval by the Board, the Trust or any other Person as determined by the Administrator, shall have the right to purchase the resultant Shares at the face value in case such Option Grantee exercises his/her Vested Options, and the beneficial ownership of the Shares, which have been issued pursuant to Exercise by such Option Grantee, shall be transferred by the Option Grantee to such purchaser. In the event no action is taken by the Option Grantee for transfer of aforesaid Shares (pursuant to this Clause 9.3.5, if applicable), such Shares shall be deemed to be transferred to the Trust or any other Person as determined by the Administrator (as the case may be) at the face value of such Share or at a value as may be determined by the Administrator at the time of abandonment of employment. "Abandonment of employment" means when an employee has left the employment of the Company without formally resigning from the services of the Company or without written consent of his supervisor and the Company.

6. Exercise in the event of termination of employment for Cause: In the event of termination of employment of an Option Grantee for Cause, all Options (Vested or Unvested) which have not been Exercised at the time of such termination shall stand cancelled with effect from the date of such termination. In case, Vested Options cannot be cancelled in accordance with Applicable Law, the Administrator shall undertake such actions as may be specified by the Board. Further, subject to approval by the Board, the Trust or any other Person as determined by the Administrator, shall have the right to purchase the resultant Shares at a price equal to the face value in case such Employee exercises his/her Vested Options, and the beneficial ownership of the Shares which have been issued pursuant to Exercise by such Option Grantee, shall be transferred by the Option Grantee to such purchaser. In the event no action is taken by the Option Grantee for the transfer of aforesaid Shares (pursuant to this Clause 9.3.6, if applicable), such Shares shall be deemed to be transferred to the Trust or any other Person as determined by the Administrator (as the case may be) at the face value of such Share or at a value as may be determined by the Administrator at the time of termination of employment.
7. Exercise in case of separation for other reasons: In the event of separation of an Option Grantee from his/her employment due to reasons other than those mentioned in Clauses 9.3.5 to Clause 9.3.6 above, unless otherwise determined by the Administrator, all Unvested Options on the date of separation shall stand cancelled with effect from such date. However, all Vested Options as on the date of separation shall be exercisable by the Option Grantee upon the occurrence of an Exercise Event.

M. A statement to the effect that the company shall comply with the applicable accounting standards:

The Company shall follow the rules/regulations/laws applicable to accounting and disclosures including but not limited to the Indian accounting standards or the Guidance Note on Accounting for Share-based Payments as prescribed by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India, or any other accounting principle as may be replaced from time to time.

Further, the Company proposes to grant ESOP to identified employees, during any one year, equal to or exceeding one percent of the issued capital (excluding outstanding warrants and conversions) of the Company at the time of grant of options as determined by the Board in accordance with Blunav System Employee Stock Option Plan 2026.

The Board in its Meeting held on the 19th March 2026 had approved the issuance of ESOP to identified employees, during any one year, equal to or exceeding one percent of the issued capital (excluding outstanding warrants and conversions) of the Company at the time of grant of units and the approval of the Members by way of Special Resolution is required for the same.

The Board recommended the above resolution for approval, as the same is in the interest of the company.

None of the Directors, Promoters are interested or concerned in the passing of the said resolution.
